Mincola, warned today that Saturday is the dead line of all operators' licenses which expire in 1950. It is also the dead line for drivers whose operators' licenses expired on Sept. 28, 1950, but to whom the Motor Vehicle Bureau allowed a so-called "year of grace" before requiring them to take the drivers test again.

Since the majority of licenses are obtained by mail he requested that communications be addressed to the Motor Vehicle Bureau, Old Court House, Mineola, New York.

Applications and renewals can also be obtained over the counter at branch offices located at:

88 Church street, Freeport
64 Jerusalem avenue, Hicksville.

F. H. S. June Graduates Scattered Throughout Colleges As Freshman

Members of the Freeport High School senior class of 1950 are freshmen in colleges scattered throughout the country for the collegiate year just started.

John Cleary, the class president, is attending Yale University, as is James Magidsen, the salutatorian. Mary Cleary, the secretary is enrolled at New Palz State Teacher's College.

Several June graduates can be found "far above Cayuga's waters" at Cornell University. Richard Mayer, valedictorian, Jim Buchanan, editor of Flashings, the high school newspaper, Bob Mazelsky and Howard Cheyney are among the Big Red contingent there.

Diane Jordan, vice-president and drum majorette of the band, is enrolled at Adelphi. Jack Plunkett, the former Freeport sports star, and Edward Fitzgerald, sports editor of the 1950 yearbook, the Voyageur, are included among the students at Hofstra. Walt Nestvogel, the football and lacrosse stand-out, has joined the numerous Freeporters at Colgate University.

In addition to members of the class of 1950, many other Freeport alumni are adding to their accomplishments at college. Two of the more prominent names are Leon Hong, class of '47 and Bill Dodd, class of '49, both former presidents of the Freeport High School General Organization. Hong, who is now a senior at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has been elected captain of the 1950-51 basketball squad. Dodd, a sophomore at Colgate, earned class numerals as a freshman in soccer and basketball.

Frank Pitcher, president of the class of '47, is now a senior at Cor-

great popularity. Bob Langan ('48) will be seeing considerable action on the Colgate gridiron squad. Bob Ebel, another Freeport football great, will be a mainstay on the Hofstra football squad. Bill Kervin ('49), past president of the dramatic society, the Masque and Wig, is continuing his studies at the University of Notre Dame.

Bob Schneider ('49), and J. M. Malacoff ('50), are among the students at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Denny Colonna ('49), is on the football team at Niagara. Bob Furman ('48), has recently been accepted at Adelphi.

Stenzler, Blind Musician, Wins Again In Paul Whiteman Telecast

Herman Stenzler, 16-year-old blind accordionist of the Freeport Police Boys' Club orchestra, captured first honors for the third successive week in Paul Whiteman's television talent show, "Teen-Top Revue," in Philadelphia Saturday night. And if he can repeat the performance this Saturday night as he was playing for a broadcast over Station WGBB. At his suggestion Stenzler formed an orchestra made up of other members of the club. While Stenzler and others were appearing at a show for the editors of the high school papers of Nassau County at Hofstra College about three months ago, Robert Burns, a talent scout happened to be present. He was so impressed by the blind musician's ability he promised to give him an opportunity to compete on Paul Whiteman's telecast.

His opportunity came on Saturday, Sept. 9, when Paul Whiteman took him to Philadelphia. There after winning two preliminary rounds, he was pitted against a Philadelphia instrumental trio which was within one round of winning the $1,500 in prizes. Stenzler quickly eliminated them, then went on to win a week later and repeat this achievement last Saturday night. He must win again Saturday night and again a week later to capture top honors.

Stenzler is a son of Mrs. Leo Stenzler, 41 Thorne ave., Hempstead. He lost his sight when he was 9 years old.

1951 March of Dimes Drive to Start With a 'Pre-Campaign Luncheon'

The 1951 March of Dimes "pre-campaign" luncheon for the women who will carry the appeal for funds for polio victims to every Nassau village, will be held in the Garden City Hotel, Garden City on Wednesday, Oct. 18.

Mrs. George A. Stevenson of Floral Park, chairman of the drive to be held in January, announced that village chairmen and key workers will attend the session which is held each year to acquaint volunteers with the most recent developments in the battle against infantile paralysis.

In addition to those who will take an active part in the fund appeal, residents of women's clubs, religious and community groups also have been invited to attend.

Women who are prominently identified with community affairs always are anxious to learn the progress being made in the National Foundation's nation-wide "Pre-Campaign on Polio" the editor, Mrs. Stevenson said, the Nassau Polo Chapter is now assisting more than 60 per cent of those who have been stricken this year besides the many passes from the "Pre-Campaign" still hospitalized or in need of home treatment.

The after effects of the polio outbreak during the past few years are being felt all over the country, she pointed out, because the patient load has increased steadily. "Although some of the cases have been light attacks, there have been so many more who have been left with heart-rending residual crippling," she explained.

The remaining members of the class will represent milk bottles and a song, "The Milk Bottle Chorus" will be sung. Pamela Kranaki will sing a solo, "The Cow." May Roman, a seventh grade pupil, will read the scriptures and lead in reciting the Lord's Prayer. Ralph Phillips will be the announcer.

Ralph Herlihy's seventh grade class presented a "Safety Program" at the opening chapel for Upper Grades last Thursday afternoon. Susan Ballantyne, Janet Burkhardt and Joan Codi directed skills aimed at the promotion of safety.

The Bible reading and prayer were led by Mary Roman. She also introduced the school guides and evaluated their duties for the assembly. She is the Guide Marshal for this year.

Businesswomen Hear Talk on Europe Trip

Mrs. Lillian Van Meter, Hempstead Librarian, Spent 9 Weeks Abroad

Mrs. Lillian Van Meter, librarian of the Hempstead Public Library, gave an account of her nine-week trip through Europe, during which she visited England, Scotland, Belgium, France and Switzerland at the first meeting of the Business Women of Freeport for the fall season at the home of Mrs. Amelia Kelly, 75 Henry st., Roosevelt, Thursday evening. The talk was illustrated by Kodachrome slides.

Traveling by boat, train and a Rolls Royce of ancient vintage afforded an opportunity to visit many places of historical and pictorial interest and to capture them on Kodachrome. Canterbury Cathedral, the Tower of London, Windsor Castle, Stratford-on-Avon, and Oxford were but a few of the places visited before leaving England for the continent. Her pictures of English and Scottish gardens, fields of heather, wild azaleas and the snow capped mountains of Switzerland were particularly beautiful.

A donation of $10 was voted to the Girl Scouts.

Attending were Mrs. Agnes Licens, president, Mrs. Amelia Kelly, Mrs. Marguerite Johnson, Mrs. Isabel Tree, Mrs. Christine Edwards, Mrs. Peggy Miller, Mrs. Anne Bassler, Mrs. Gladys Taylor, Mrs. Carrie Mock, Mrs. Katherine Gaynor, Mrs. Elizabeth F. Fair Weather Friends

The scene is the International Bar.

In walks Uncle Sam, pockets bulging with money.

He calls everybody up and invites them to put their feet on the brass rail. He throws his money right and left. The crowd slaps him on the back and tells him he is a great fellow.

Lit up with too much "brotherly love" he gets tipsy and the hangers on "roll" him for his dough.

But he comes back for more and more punishment. Yes, he comes back to the plush establishment time after time. Hilarious nights, chase nights, years pursue years, and the missionary of democracy does not weaken.

When ready money duns out he taxes, and taxes the little children. They seem delighted to put their noses to the grindstone and shall out their savings in the good cause.

The tall gentleman with goatee and swallow tail coat keeps right on going to the bar to the enjoyment and entertainment of all the international moochers that gather there. Time after time, he enters the establishment with cheers from the crowd of fair weather friends.

But he goes once too often.

It was just the other day, in an unguarded moment a bum "beamed" him. He went down almost in a Dunkirk.

Lying on the floor prostrate, did any of his former pals offer a hand to raise him from the floor and dust off his clothes?

Not a one.

They threw him a few crumbs, but that was about all.

With awakened consciousness, Uncle Sam pulled himself together, while his bar-room friends looked on. He rubbed his eyes, and pinched himself to see if after all it was only a horrible dream.

Realizing the awful truth and the perfidy of his friends, hard lines came to his face and he swung a wicked blow at the bum who hit him without warning.

For a long time, he and his adversary have been trading "haymakers"; and far out of the danger zone sit the spectators.

And Uncle Sam will finish this ruckus—no doubt alone, except of course, when the bum is about done in, a few will get on the band wagon.

And then, when the ruckus is over, Uncle will be back at the International Bar. And his pals will all be there.

Good old Uncle Sam. Let's buy another round for the boys.

Towns Teens

By FRANCES PRATT

This week, the week of September 25-30, has been proclaimed as FOOTBALL WEEK by Leo F. Giblin, president of the Board of Education. This seems like a perfect time to have a Football Week, after the spectacular defeat of HEMPSTEAD by the under dog F. H. S. eleven. As the score 13-12 shows this was a tight, hard-fought game all the way with the outcome not decided till the last seventy seconds or play. Lots of credit goes to co-captain "SKIP" ULIP who scored both Red-Devil touchdowns. The team, however, suffered a great blow when veteran line-man MARSHALL RIVERS, was injured. Marshall suffered a dislocated elbow and will be missing from the line-up for quite a while.

The team in its initial performance under drummajor NELL FERNANDEZ, was sensational. The formations, the raising of the flag and two Jims, and the Old-Fashioned River Boat whose paddle turns were expertly done.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF F. H. S.

A good time was had by all at the Open House Party held by JERRY SIMANDL Saturday night, to celebrate the Freeport Victory—Congratulations to the Senior Class officers: President BOB PARISH, Vice President CAROL MUNKLEIT, Secretary ANN D'GESU, Treasurer JOYCE DAY, Social Secretary DIANE SMITH and G.O. Representative JANE WILSON. This is BOB's third year as President of his class. Some sort of a record he'd say. This year's senior play will be the original Henry Aldrich play, "WHEAT & LIES."

The Freshman football season looks like it will be a good one. Tall handsome center JOHN SWISHER is one of the most popular guys in the Jr. High—DIANE SMITH and MARION have interests in common—their steadiest are members of the football team—BETTY SEGRETO has been seen sporting a Hempstead letter sweater—DICK MAYER writes from Cornell that from the point of view of a lowly freshman, the girls there can't compare with the girls at F. H. S.—Don't forget to enter THE LEADER FOOTBALL CONTEST. There is a prize each week. This week's lucky winner is BILL BROWN. That's all for now—See You Around.

Insurance And Its Benefits To You

HERMAN N. BUNDESEN JR.

You have heard people say that they would like to do or have a certain something but that they could not afford it. Just how much is it worth to you not to lose between ten thousand and forty thousand dollars? That is just what you or your family might lose if you are not careful enough to protect your current or future benefits from Social Security.

The danger of losing thousands of dollars in Social Security benefits can be eliminated with just a little caution. Let us presume that you had $10,000 on deposit in one of the local banks and they advertised that you might lose those funds unless you used just a few precautionary measures—what would you do?

Would you let it pass or would you try to find out immediately just what you could do to protect those benefits? Are you being fair to your family and yourself when you are "too tired" or because "it's raining," or perhaps you'll "do it next week?" All the expenses in the world from here to Christmas and back will not redeem lost benefits.

The Social Security program is not designed to eliminate all want. Anyone paying Social Security taxes cannot feel that he and his dependents are secure financially. Any such plan would deprive millions of individuals of the incentive and ambition to make the most of their lives and abilities.

Social Security benefits are designed only to provide the barest of incomes. You can however build for yourself a financial program to help make the future reasonably secure, providing you are willing to supplement these benefits with your own well-made plans.

You can make Social Security work for you and your loved ones and protect your account of more than $10,000 by having your life insurance and other property so arranged as to supplement Social Security payments.

The Social Security Act provides that benefits cease when the individual entitled to them earns more than $50 per month in covered employment. Why not look into the various dangers and benefits when with a little caution you might prevent the loss of your home at your death? Social Security can help to pay off the mortgage if you will just let it help.

Over half a million people entitled to retirement benefits under Social Security cannot claim them. If you are interested in finding out why and wherefore, just clip the coupon at the bottom of the page and send in for the information booklet written by the noted tax authority, J. K. Lasser.

Q. What is a "Quarter of Coverage?"

A. The calendar year is divided into four 3-month periods or quarters, ending March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31. Each calendar quarter in which an employee is paid wages of $50 or more in covered employment is a "quarter of coverage" for determining his insurance status under social security.

For self-employed persons, a quarter of coverage is a calendar quarter in which he has been credited with at least $100 of self-employment income. Four quarters of coverage are credited for each year in which self-employment income is $400 or more.

Q. What is meant by a "covered" job?

A. Any kind of job, work, occupation or business in which the wages or the self-employment income count toward old-age and survivors insurance.

I would like to receive the new booklet on Social Security by Mr. J. K. Lasser.

500 Baldwin Youngsters Feted At The Kiwanis Club Picnic Events

It was Christmas in September for more than 500 Baldwin youngsters Sunday at Gardiner Field, with the Baldwin Kiwanis Club playing somewhat wind and frost nipped Santa Claus to the eager and willing small fry.

The picnic, an annual event usually featuring only the 350 boys of the 25 teams making up the Kiwanis Boys Baseball League, was held this year coincidentally with Kiwanis International's National Kids Day and was thrown open to all of Baldwin's boys and girls.

It was an exciting afternoon for the bicycle set, who competed by age groups in sack races, with tumblers, tug-of-war, with a few blisters and wheel barrow races, with here and there a very minor collision. Fred Trautwein, Harry Mitchell, Charles Leinster and George Parrish, baseball league chairmen, were in charge of events, and George Duncan, the prizes. They were assisted on the field by some of Baldwin teachers and business men.

Lucky recipients of pen and pencil sets, harmonicas and other prizes were the following winners of their respective events:

Boys sack race: Allen Kjelein and David Bruce; girls sack race: Gloria Olson, Barbara Shepard and Ellen Donellen; wheel barrow race: Saka and Perry; with Warren Light and Bob Reischneider runners up.

Tug-of-war 10-13 age group: Philip Jankov, Warren Light, Eugene Cum, Bob Schugman, Bill Hodges, Gil Glenn, Barton Ferris, Bob Deutsch and Ed Veltreiner; 13 to 18 age group: Cum, Perry, Lohel, Colgan, Fischetti, Fusillo, Chaisio, Tremper and Gould.

High spot of the afternoon was the awarding of trophies to the winners in the four baseball leagues. The trophies, each a miniature baseball figure mounted on a base inscribed with the player's name, position and league, were awarded to the following:

Baseball Jr., grasshoppers (George Parrish, mfr.), Edward MacDonald, John Wagner, Robert Schugman, Bill Hodges, Harold Norton, Dick Sattler, Bob Reischneider, Allen Parrish, Warren Light, Robert Magee, Barton Ferris, Bruce Baum, Gavin, Halston and Tommy Baum.

Adams club, seniors (W. Mahneke, mfr.), J. Cummings, M. Flynn, M. Embree, W. Downey, E. Shaw, E. Inglis, G. Fagerstrom, F. Haeffl, J. Jabel, J. Vitushinmon, J. Wilson, A. Seffris, A. Brooks and L. Bledren.

Baseball Dodgers were the special awards made to the following: the Hawks, Jrs., winners in their division of the grasshopper league.

Bill Brown, World War II Veteran Winner Of First Football Contest

Bill Brown, an army veteran, is the winner of the Leader's first football contest. Brown, who selected the five correct winners, edged by Edwin Gregg of Baldwin, who also had the correct victors. Brown's entry was judged the winner because he picked the exact scores in two of the games.

Brown, a graduate of Lynbrook High School, now resides in Freeport on Rosedale ave. During his high school days, he was president of the Debate club and a member of the track and cross-country squads. Immediately after his graduation, he enlisted in the United States Army. He served for three years, including a year and one-half in Korea. He is employed at Viebrock's Luncheonette and is engaged to John Cameron, a Freeport High School senior.

Bill took post-graduate courses at Freeport High School and is now studying transportation law at the Academy of Advanced Traffic in Manhattan. Keep on sending in your entries; you too may be a winner!

Scanning The Sports Scene

By DICK SCHAAF
The lucky fans who witnessed last week's Freeport-Hempstead tussle were treated to one of the finest games of the long rivalry. The 13-12 score indicated the tightness of the battle. Both sides rose to great heights at times with the final minute of play providing the most thrills.

When Skip Ulp raced around end for the deciding marker, the clock showed 51 seconds remaining to be played. That was enough time for Hempstead to throw four desperation passes. The final play of the game found Don Deignault, rangy Tiger flanker, miss a probable touchdown toss after he sped behind the Freeport defenders.

Freeport had numerous stars paying the way for the triumph. Ulp, Hank Natterer, Joe Muro and Hank Bandhold were but a few of the Red Devil standouts. Berk Sweeney and Jerry Simandl sparked when they were inserted into the line-up. It is impossible to overlook the savage-tackling, brilliant field generalship of Joe Masone. Roman Oleksiak was the big gun in the Tiger offense. His running and passing paced Hempstead while Dick Martin opened many holes in that Freeport line with his smashes through the middle.

Mephams' hard-driving Bucs displayed a lethal scoring punch as they consistently overpowered Farmingdale. The feature of the 40-0 romp was a 75-yard jaunt around the end by Al Schreiber, reserve Mephams back.

Contest News—Congratulations to Bill Brown, first winner in the Leader's football contest. Remember, everyone who enters is eligible for the grand prize, a pair of duets to a major collegiate gridiron encounter and all expenses paid.

Seeing Stars—In the games of the coming weeks, there are a few outstanding stars who should not be overlooked by the fans. Freeport's Red Devils contribute Skip Ulp, Joe Masone, Hank Bandhold, Joe Muro, Al Harris and Howie Waszner to the list. Outstanding for Hempstead's Tigers are Roman Oleksiak, Dick Martin and Don Deignault. Greg Maushart, Ed Thomas, John Tofo, John DiMartino and Ed Nickla pace Mephams' Bucs. Baldwin, idle last week, lists standouts Dick Grotz and Charlie Shaw. Bob Schmidt performed brilliantly for Lawrence last week while Len Hazell's booming punts also were a feature of Lawrence's attack. George Spellman, Glen Cove speedster, is probably the top scabbard in Nassau County. Earl Seagle, Herb Halperin and Bob Best stand out on a powerful Sewanhaka squad. Don McCauley, Jack Fahey and Paul Corwin are the players to watch on the Chaminade Flyers.

Pigskin Picks—Last week, we picked five correct winners while missing put-on-three games for a percentage of 625. In the top game of the coming week, we'll stick with Freeport by one touchdown over Chaminade. Mephams should be able to edge Sewanhaka but, this will also be very tight. We look to Glen Cove to spoil Baldwin's opener by two touchdowns. The reason Spellman and company. South Side should get by Farmingdale by a pair of markers. We pick Port Washington to edge Garden City; ditto Roslyn over East Rockaway. We see Hicksville too strong for Great Neck. A top Class B game, pitting Oyster Bay against Manhasset, should find the Baymen on top by a touchdown. Lawrence figures to trouble Southhampton. We look to Mineola to spring an upset over Valley Stream by a touchdown. As for the other games, we pick Woodhure over Lynbrook, Westbury over Poughkeepsie, and Long Beach over Malverne.

Alumni Notes—Walt LaPrairie was sidelined by an injury for the majority of the game as Rutgers was swamped by Syracuse. Joe Megale, former Baldwin all-scholastic, is battling for a first string berth at William and Mary. Ed Boyle and Chris Sweeney, Freeport residents and grads of Chaminade, both hold down first string berths at Fordham University. Colgate, listing former Freeport ace Bob Langan, meets up with Army's all-conquering Black Knights in their opener. Walt Kohanovich, one time Hempstead all-scholastic, was the only bright spot in Hofstra's dismal showing. Walt's brother, Al, is a sophomore end with the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame.

Girl Scout Fund Drive Reaches Half-way Mark
William J. Martin Jr., honorary chairman of the 1950 Girl Scout fund campaign announced today the midway mark had been reached in the duration of the rummage sale and that efforts would be doubled to reach the quota of $24,000 assigned Freeport before the time limit is reached. Volunteer canvassers are working throughout the village and will continue to do so. He urged all residents of the community to recognize the value of Scout activities for the girls of Freeport and by responding to the appeal for funds make it possible to carry on the work among more girls. Mr. Martin expressed appreciation to all who contributed to the success of the rummage sale for the benefit of the drive that was held last week. He also announced that cake sales for the benefit of the fund would be held at the Food Fair tomorrow afternoon and at the Municipal Bus Terminal beginning Saturday at noon.

The Carlises

It isn't often we rave about a picture but THE MEN which we caught at the FREEPORT early this week rates our best. It is definitely a "smash hit." It's a study of paraplegics and their fight for a useful existence although paralyzed from the waist down. The subject is handled sensitively and sensibly. The cast is great. Everett Sloan should garner an ACADEMY AWARD with this one. His performance of the doctor is one of the finest things ever, and Teresa Wright plucks the heart strings. We recommend this one all the way. From the FREEPORT THEATRE we understand it moves into the BALDWIN THEATRE so if you missed it be sure to catch up with it there. CLUBBING AROUND: The town seems a little quiet around this time of the year with the outside spots making way for the inside spots. Inside or out, it's the same cup of tea depending on how you like your dose. NOTHING WRONG with Mc CLUSKEYS out on Sunrise Highway if you like a really good steak, and their hamburgers make you wonder why anybody ever eats at the usual hamburger joints about town. For a dime more than the joints charge you get hamburger that is all beef, and two inches thick (well almost) and the next day you don't need a stomach pump. HOW DID YOU LIKE that Saturday Evening Post story on George Horton Levy we told you about last week? It sure made good reading. THE INDIA HOUSE has opened one of the made good readings. THE INDIA HOUSE has opened one of the finest BANQUET ROOMS on Long Island. The room was designed and created by VIRGINIA CUMMINGS. It is well worth a trip to Bellmore to hear CARLO STEA play the ivories at THE INDIA HOUSE. LUNCH AT VIEBROCK'S is always pleasant, but much more so when your companion is one of the BARACH boys. He shows much com munity spirit in his concern over the traffic hazard that is Sunrise Highway and Main St., in Freeport. (Safety Council, please note). We were greatly amused recently at the benefit performance for the FOLIO FUND when one of the child performers got real temperamental and turned her nose up at being photographed for one of our Nassau County papers. She didn't get her picture taken, and you can bet that kind of press relations will not help her. The average press-photographer is a very hard working Joe and he doesn't like temperamental actresses even when they are good. PABTIN THOUGHT. Every man, however obscure, however for removal from the general recognition, is one of a group men impressive for good and interesting in life, and it is in the nature of things that he cannot really improve himself with out in some degree improving other men.

MARY ATKINSON RETURNS TO SMITH COLLEGE

Miss Mary Atkinson, junior at Smith College, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Atkinson, Rockville Drive, Baldwin, returned to school Tuesday. Mary, who is majoring in history and religion, with German as her language major, plans to live at German House. Smith College has several such language houses, where only the designated tongue is spoken at all times. The house mother in Miss Atkinson's college residence is German, the cooking, German style, the whole atmosphere, as near that of the country's way of living as possible. Mary hopes to do graduate work abroad, and is particularly interested in post-war problems in Germany.
